Braineaser

During the recent Dezzlup Cup, the first four horses did well to finish ahead of the opposition. After Dinner was not last and the horse wearing blue was not third. Bitter Twist was before the horse in green. Dare Devil came first. Bitter Twist finished before After Dinner. Catch Me wore red but Bitter Twist did not wear yellow. Can you determine where each horse finished and the colors they wore? Look below for the answer!

We've Come a Long Way

The national flag which we see waving these days has been in effect since July 4, 1960. However, this flag featuring 50 stars on a canton against the background of 13 stripes - 7 red and 6 white - has been through many changes!

Happy Flag Day!
