WHO AM I?

The answer is below

You will know that I am coming
From the jingle of my bell,
But exactly who I am is not an easy thing to tell.

Children, they adore me
for they find me jolly,
but I do not see them when the halls are decked with holly.

My job often leaves me frozen,
I am a man that all should know,
But I do not do business in times of sleet or ice or snow.

I travel much on business,
But no reindeer haul me around,
I do all my traveling firmly on the ground.

I love the time of Christmas,
But that's not my vocational season,
And I assure that is because of a sound economic reason.

Wear Your Poppies This Memorial Day!

In 1915, inspired by the poem "In Flanders Fields," Moina Michael conceived of an idea to wear red poppies on Memorial Day in honor of those who died serving the nation during war. She sold poppies to her friends and co-workers, donating the money to servicemen in need. This tradition spread to other countries. In 1921, the Franco-American Children's League sold poppies to benefit war orphans of France and Belgium. The League disbanded a year later and the VFW was approached for help. Shortly before Memorial Day in 1922 the VFW became the first veterans' organization to sell poppies nationally.
